BIOGRAPHY

Marie-Pier Levesque is an associate with the Cox & Palmer office in Moncton. Prior to joining Cox & Palmer as an associate, Marie-Pier worked with our firm as a summer student and as a student-at-law. She is originally from Campbellton and studied law at Université de Moncton where she graduated with a Juris Doctor in 2016.

Marie-Pier's primary area of practice is in corporate and commercial law, as well as in real estate transactions, both commercial and residential, and estate planning, including preparing last will & testaments and powers of attorney. She is fluent in both official languages and can assist her clients in French and English.

Outside of the office, Marie-Pier enjoys travelling and spending time with her family and friends.

EXPERIENCE

Marie-Pier worked at the Human Rights Commission from 2013-2014. She also completed a judicial internship at the New Brunswick Court of Appeal in her final year of her law degree.
